OFFICE ORDER

It has been observed that some of the applicants while filing application under Right to Information Act, 2005 submits excess postal order in addition to Rs. 10/- as required for the application fee. Further, the excess postal order received with the RTI applications were also en-cashed and resultantly has given rise to unwanted litigation against the State Board.

In order to ensure uniform practice among the Head Office and Regional Offices, all Group In-charges And Regional Officers are hereby directed to:-

- i. Ensure that the any excess fees i.e. postal order in excess to Rs. 10/- alongwith RTI application shall not be en-cashed.
- ii. The excess postal order received with the RTI application shall be returned to the applicant immediately.

All concerned are directed to ensure immediate compliance of the order.
