Steering Rajasthan cricket body, Vaibhav runs into 'red diary' storm

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE JAIPUR, AUGUST 3

STEPPING UP his offensive against the Ashok Gehlot-led Congress government in Rajasthan, sacked minister Kapendra Gehlot has made public some excerpts from the 'red diary' in his possession to allege irregularities in the elections to the Rajasthan Cricket Association (RCA) headed by Chief Minister Gehlot's son Vaibhav Gehlot.

Vaibhav Gehlot

Addressing a press conference in Jaipur Wednesday, Gehlot read out a few lines from the purported 'red diary', which purportedly talk about non-payment of money by RCA board members to its president to certain people in the RCA office.

While he did not reveal much about the content of the excerpts, Gehlot said he had said with a 'hundred per cent' certainty that 'votes were bought during RCA elections'.

Gehlot, who was recently sacked by Gehlot as a minister, said he had been in the Assembly about 'irregularities against women' in the state. He said that the 'red diary' contains records of 'misdeeds' by the Gehlot government and that he had retrieved it from the residence of Gehlot's aide Dharmendra Rathore at Gehlot's insistence while Income Tax raids were on at Rathore's properties in 2020 during a revolt against the Gehlot government. Rathore is currently the Rajasthan Tourism Development Corporation (RTDC) chairman.

Cricket and politics are inextricably linked in India and often they become a vehicle for people involved in one to make space or consolidate their position in the other. In Vaibhav, an IAS officer who was in the cabinet as the RCA president, remaining at the helm of the RCA is a way to remain in the public eye and keep his fledgling political career.

Vaibhav unsuccessfully contested the 2019 Lok Sabha elections from Jodhpur, a constituency from where his father has been a two-time MP. He was elected as the RCA president in an election on June 22, 2022, in which he was opposed by the Congress sectional team in December last year.

Under Vaibhav's presidency, the RCA conducted the re-election of the Rajasthan Khasta Stadium in Jodhpur and his father inaugurated the refurbished stadium in September last year. The political messaging was clear — despite losing the Lok Sabha elections from the constituency, Vaibhav was working for the development of Jodhpur. He has also laid the foundation of a state-of-the-art cricket stadium in Jaipur. Moreover, it was during Vaibhav's tenure that the first international cricket match in eight years was held in Jaipur's Sawai Man Singh Stadium.

The RCA's proximity to power and politics has remained a constant throughout the years. Though Jaipur did not host a major international match before Vaibhav's tenure, the RCA was never out of the news for long, primarily because of its past ties with former Indian Premier League (IPL) chairman Lalit Modi. Both Modi, a former RCA president, and current Rajasthan Assembly Speaker P. J. Joshi are Vaibhav's predecessors and have headed the RCA for multiple terms. Modi, who was once close to former Rajasthan CM

Vaibhav's Rajinji, engaged a local firm to print a book of 100 pages, which was distributed to members of the association in 2005 and 2009, a period that also coincided with the first three ministerial terms of his father. According to posts on social media, Vaibhav had said on matters related to the IPL, Modi often had to say on matters related to IPL, Modi often had to say on matters related to IPL, Modi often had to say on matters related to IPL.

Then in 2015, a complaint was filed with the Enforcement Directorate (ED), again accusing Vaibhav of financial fraud. The complaint alleged that from 2011 to 2014, Vaibhav had been employed as a director in a company called 'The Rajinji Group of Companies', which was a front for the Modi family. The complaint also alleged that Vaibhav had been employed as a director in a company called 'The Rajinji Group of Companies', which was a front for the Modi family.

The complainants alleged that Rajinji Group of Companies was a front for the Modi family. The complaint also alleged that Vaibhav had been employed as a director in a company called 'The Rajinji Group of Companies', which was a front for the Modi family.

Following the Congress exit in that election, the Congress failed to win any of the 25 seats in the state. Gehlot was targeted for spending too much in Jodhpur. At the Congress Working Committee meeting held to discuss the defeat, Rajinji Gehlot reportedly referred to Vaibhav while talking about leaders whose interests of their own were above that of the party.

However, months later, in October 2019, Vaibhav was elected president of the RCA for the first time, organising former leader of Opposition Rameshwar Dubi, who alleged that the RCA had been set up to support the Modi government. The RCA was accused of 'misusing' its authority and of being 'disloyal' to the Modi government.
